

FIFTH ISSUE NEWSLETTER

Jordan University of Science and Technology-JUST December 26, 2019

The sixth Management Meeting of the FOODQA Project was organized by JUST and held in Amman during the period 17-21 April, 2019.

This meeting aimed to discuss the progress of the project and visit companies by teams from different partners organizations to edit process for all the facilities and documents from the company.

These visits and auditing process aimed to help them get the Food management systems, such as IFS, and HACCAP.

The following table shows the date of each visit:

April 17-18	Ader food company Al-Thunayah Dairy Co
April 18	TEEBA Company Haretna Company
April 20	BRAVO Company Fresh Fruit Company

Fostering Academia-Industry Collaboration in Food Safety and Quality- FOODQA

AIC 4th Meeting

The AIC fourth meeting was held on April 3, 2019 at Mutah University Under the patronage of Prof. Thafer Assaraira the President of Mutah University. Jordanian partners of the FOODQA project attended that meeting in addition to few companies from the south of Jordan.

The project Coordinator Prof. Fahmi Abu Al-Rub discussed how the FOODQA project can help companies and the training opportunities that can be offered by the project.

AIC 5th Meeting

was held on November 4, 2019 at Hilton hotel in Dead Sea, the project partners from Mutah University, University of Jordan, Al-Balqa' Applied University and Jordan University of Science and Technology attended the meeting with the team from Industry represented by persons from different companies like Al Kaseeh Co, Nabeel Co, Ader Co, and Saniora Co to discuss how the project aimed to connect between Academia and Industry.

ADER Dairy

located at Al Karak took the HACCAP with the help of FOODQA project.

The project trained the ADER Dairy and helped in editing process for all the facilities and documents from the company to help them until they took the HACCAP.

Seventh Management Meeting was held in Teramo, Italy on August 2019. The meeting aimed to discuss the progress of the project, the procedure of publishing of the e-books, needed updates of the website, preparation of the newsletters, and the final conference suggested dates.

Each partner presented the achieved tasks of its institution and the project Manager asked the partners to prepare all the needed documents related to the financial report.

AIC 6th Meeting

was held at Jordan University of Science and Technology (JUST) on November 21, 2019.

Prof. Fahmi Abu Al-Rub the project manager from JUST asked the Companies if they are interested to be in the Judgement committee, and some of them are ready to be a part during the evaluation process for the projects.

